50. The allegations of Paragraph 50 are admitted.

51. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 51, it is admitted that Williams worked as a confidential informant with the RPD under Abdullah's supervision. Except as admitted, denied.

52. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 52 and Footnote 2, it is admitted that Williams was nicknamed Aspirin and that he is being criminally prosecuted by the Wake County District Attorney's Office. Except as admitted, denied.

53. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 53, it is admitted that Williams has a criminal record and prior arrests. Except as admitted, denied.

54. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 54, it is admitted that an Assistant District Attorney approved Williams to work as a confidential informant for the RPD. Except as admitted, denied.

55. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 55, it is admitted that Williams agreed to work as a confidential informant. Except as admitted, denied.

56. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 56, it is admitted that Williams reported to Abdullah and completed controlled drug buys. Except as admitted, denied.

57. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 57, it is admitted that Williams was provided money from the RPD Confidential Informant funds for controlled buys. Except as admitted, denied.

58. The allegations of Paragraph 58 are denied for lack of information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief.

59. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 59, it is admitted that Officer Nance was transferred to a different unit within the RPD. It is denied that Officer Nance ever supervised Williams. Except as admitted, denied for lack of information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief.

60. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 60, it is admitted that Williams was incarcerated in early 2019 in Nash County on a felony larceny charge. Except as admitted, denied for lack of information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief.

61. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 61, it is admitted that, after his Nash County incarceration, Williams worked as a confidential informant with Abdullah. Except as admitted, denied for lack of information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief.

62. With respect to the allegations of Paragraph 62, it is admitted that Williams complained about his pay as a Confidential Informant. It is further admitted that Abdullah informed Williams that more trafficking cases could result in more pay. Except as admitted, denied.

63. The allegations of Paragraph 63 are denied for lack of information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief.

64. The allegations of Paragraph 64 are denied.

65. The allegations of Paragraph 65 are denied.

66. The allegations of Paragraph 66 are denied.

67. The allegations of Paragraph 67 are denied.

68. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 68, it is admitted that the RPD VICE officers worked as a team when making controlled buys and arrests. Except as admitted, denied.

69. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 69, it is admitted that RPD VICE officers generally met for a briefing prior to each controlled buy. Except as admitted, denied.

70. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 70, it is admitted that, for purposes of the controlled buys, Williams was provided with electronic surveillance devices meant to allow officers to observe and listen to the transactions. Except as admitted denied.

71. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 71, it is admitted that, for purposes of the controlled buys, Williams was provided with electronic surveillance devices meant to allow officers to observe and listen to the transactions. Except as admitted denied.

72. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 72, it is admitted that Abdullah searched Williams before each controlled buy and never located any contraband on his person. Except as admitted, denied.

73. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 73, it is admitted, upon information and belief, that, on his final two controlled buys, Williams shielded his undercover camera such that officers were unable to observe such buys. Except as admitted, denied.

74. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 74, it is admitted, upon information and belief, that, unbeknownst to Abdullah, Williams returned from certain controlled buys with a substance that subsequently lab-tested negative for heroin. Except as admitted, denied.

75. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 75, it is admitted that Abdullah searched Williams after each controlled buy and that Abdullah never located anything that he understood to be contraband on Williams' person. Except as admitted, denied.

76. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 76, it is admitted that Abdullah, on occasion, met with Williams alone before or after controlled buys. Except as admitted, denied.

77. The allegations of Paragraph 77 are denied.

78. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 78, it is admitted that, in addition to Abdullah, other RPD VICE officers, including at least Rolfe and Rattelade, signed receipt of informant funds sheets related to Williams' controlled buys. Except as admitted, denied.

79. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 79, it is admitted that, after Williams' controlled buys, RPD VICE officers other than Abdullah processed evidence recovered from the buys, including the substances turned over by Williams. Except as admitted, denied.

80. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 80, it is admitted that Monroe and Rattelade informed Abdullah after some, but not all, controlled buys involving Williams that the substances he brought back from such buys field-tested negative for heroin. Except as admitted, denied.

81. The allegations of Paragraph 81 are denied.

82. With respect to the allegations contained in Paragraph 82, it is admitted that Monroe and Rattelade informed Abdullah after some, but not all, controlled buys involving Williams that the substances he brought back from such buys field-tested negative for heroin. Except as admitted, denied.

TWELFTH CLAIM

298. Abdullah incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth herein, his preceding responses to the Complaint.

299. The allegations of Paragraph 299 pertain to a defendant other than Abdullah and, as such, no response is required. To the extent that a response is deemed to be required, denied.

300. The allegations of Paragraph 300 pertain to a defendant other than Abdullah and, as such, no response is required. To the extent that a response is deemed to be required, it is admitted that the publicly-available RPD policies are documents in writing that speak for themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. Except as admitted, denied.

301. The allegations of Paragraph 301 pertain to a defendant other than Abdullah and, as such, no response is required. To the extent that a response is deemed to be required, it is admitted that the publicly-available RPD policies are documents in writing that speak for themselves and are the best evidence of their contents. Except as admitted, denied.

302. The allegations of Paragraph 302 pertain to a defendant other than Abdullah and, as such, no response is required. To the extent that a response is deemed to be required, the allegations of Paragraph 302 are denied for lack of information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief.

IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING, ALL HEADINGS CONTAINED IN PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT ARE DENIED, AS ARE ANY REMAINING ALLEGATIONS IN THE COMPLAINT.

SECOND DEFENSE
(Failure to State a Claim)

Abdullah preserves his defense under Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as the Complaint fails, in whole or in part, to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

THIRD DEFENSE
(Objectively Reasonable)

At all times relevant to Plaintiffs' Complaint, the conduct of Abdullah was objectively reasonable and did not violate any clearly established constitutional rights of Plaintiffs. Conduct which is objectively reasonable cannot be negligent, nor can conduct which did not violate clearly established constitutional rights. Accordingly, Abdullah did not breach any legal duty owed to the Plaintiff.

FOURTH DEFENSE
(Qualified Immunity)

Abdullah is entitled to qualified immunity from the individual-capacity federal constitutional claims asserted against him.

FIFTH DEFENSE
(Public Official Immunity)

At all times relevant to this action, Abdullah was a sworn public officer, acting in his official capacity, and is entitled to public officer or public official immunity, which is pleaded in bar of Plaintiffs' claims.

SIXTH DEFENSE
(Probable Cause)

The searches, detentions, and/or arrests that are the subject of Plaintiffs' claims were supported by probable cause.

SEVENTH DEFENSE
(Lack of Proximate Cause)

Any alleged misconduct on the part of Abdullah, which has been and is again denied, did not proximately cause any damages to Plaintiffs.

EIGHTH DEFENSE
(Legal Justification)

Legal justification is pled as an affirmative defense in bar of Plaintiffs' right to recover in this action.

NINTH DEFENSE
(Compliance)

Abdullah should incur no liability in this action because at the time of the acts alleged in the Complaint, he acted in good faith, in conformance with RPD policies and procedures, without any wrongful intent, and with a reasonable belief that his conduct was in conformance with North Carolina state and federal laws, as well as consistent with the U.S. Constitution.

TENTH DEFENSE
(No Grounds for Punitive Damages)

The allegations contained in Plaintiffs' Complaint fail to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Abdullah acted with malice or undertook willful or wanton conduct with regard to the matters at issue in this action, and Abdullah asserts the Plaintiffs' failure to allege or prove the factual elements necessary to recover punitive damages as required by N.C. Gen. Stat. §1D-15 in bar of Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages against him in this action. Further, Plaintiffs know or should know that the claim for punitive damages against Abdullah is frivolous or malicious. Therefore, in accordance with N.C. Gen. Stat. § 1D-45, the court should award attorneys' fees to Abdullah. Finally, Abdullah specifically pleads that the imposition of punitive damages in this matter against him would be unconstitutional.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE
(Limitations)

Plaintiffs' claims for damages are barred, reduced, and/or limited pursuant to applicable statutory provisions and common law doctrines regarding limitations on awards, caps on damages, laches and setoffs.

TWELFTH DEFENSE
(Notice of Additional Defenses)

Abdullah reserves the right to plead additional affirmative defenses as may be revealed during disclosure and/or discovery proceedings in this matter and likewise plead all defenses pled by all co-defendants in this action.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Amended Complaint (Doc. 41) of the Plaintiffs, Abdullah respectfully requests the following:

1. That the Court dismiss this action as to Abdullah;
2. That the Plaintiff have and recover nothing from Abdullah;
3. That the Court award Abdullah his reasonable attorneys' fees and costs for the defense of this action; and
4. Any other such relief in favor of Abdullah as the Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted, this the 30th day of June, 2022.
